TUESDAY SESSIONS: 4:30pm-6:00pm (students may switch between Family Catechesis & in person if needed)

- ABSENCES: If a child is absent, the lesson will be done at home and emailed to homework@stvpp.org or show the chapter to teacher upon return.
- FAMILY MASS & SPECIAL SERVICES: The yearly schedule will include Family Masses and/or special events students MUST attend and the whole family is encouraged to attend these occasions.

FAMILY CATECHESIS – AT HOME MONTHLY PROGRAM:

- Parent/adult WILL DO chapters at home WITH their child(ren)
- Attend the monthly meetings according to schedule as a family starting with 4pm Mass and followed by a workshop in St Joseph Hall, 4pm-6pm.

- Families are expected to have at least a 60% attendance of these workshops. Failure to comply may result in repeating the grade.
- Bring completed chapters to be checked or turn them in to homework@stvpp.org.
- Homework should be at least 80% correct when submitted. Students can get help from parents and can always look back in the book to check their answers.

Seeking a Sacrament for your child?

- A Baptism Certificate is required for every child seeking sacraments unless the baptism can be verified on site at St Vincent Pallotti Parish or Our Lady of the Scapular Parish.
- Attend all required sessions, Parent meetings, and retreats. Complete additional workbooks or materials. 70% attendance is required for these additional sessions. Failure to comply may lead to a meeting with Father to determine Sacrament Readiness.
- Assure good weekly attendance in class (or monthly for Family Catechesis).
- Attend Sunday masses regularly together and act as a model for your child in their faith.

First Reconciliation/Eucharist: 2-year level process. Please contact the Religious Formation Office to discuss your individual situation if your child is in 4th grade or above without previous faith formation.

Confirmation: Confirmation is a 2-year level process. Please contact the Religious Formation Office to discuss your individual situation if your child is in 9th grade or above without previous faith formation.
